Parivartini Ekadashi Vrat Katha

During Mahabharata period, Lord Shri Krishna narrated the significance of Parivartini Ekadashi Vrat when asked by Arjuna, the son of Pandu. He said- "O Arjuna! Listen attentively the story of the destroyer of all sins, i.e. Parivartini Ekadashi.

During Treta Yuga, there was a demon named Bali who was very charitable, truthful and serve Brahmin kindly. He often performs penance, Yagya, etc. His devotion was so strong that he replaced Devraj Indra and began to rule in heaven. Afraid of him, Devraj and other Devas went to God Vishnu and requested him to help them. Then, he embodied as Vamana, a Brahmin boy, and defeated King Bali.

Lord Shri Krishna said- "Taking Vamana Avatar I requested him - O Rajan! If you offer land equal to 3 steps to me, you will get reward of the donations offered for three worlds. King Bali agreed to my request. Just as he vowed for gift, I took a massive form and covered Earth with one leg in first step, heaven with ankle and Brahmaloaka with toes of the other leg in next step. But for the third step, the King had nothing else to offer. So, he offered his head and I, as Lord Vamana, put my leg over his head as third step. Pleased with his commitment and devotion and, Lord Vamana made him the king of Patal Loka.

I said to King Bali - I will always be with you.”

That is why, on the day of Parivartini Ekadashi, one of my form remains with King Bali and the other sleep on Sheshnag in depths of Kshirsagar.” So, on this Ekadashi, God Vishnu turns while sleeping.
